

Armin Winter, Fixed Access Business Development EMEA, Nokia

Armin is a Business Development Manager at Nokia, where he focuses on promotion and introduction of innovative fixed access technologies. He works with leading communication service providers in Germany (or Western Europe). Over the past 30 years, Armin built extensive expertise, based on his roles in R&D, product development, sales and consultancy.