Cologne / Germany, 20 September 2022 | ANGA COM, Europe's leading Exhibition and Conference for Broadband, Television & Online, has activated the registration for exhibitors on its website. From now on, the booking of exhibition space, advertising and sponsoring is possible at www.angacom.de. In 2023, ANGA COM will take place from 23 to 25 May in Cologne/Germany.

With more than 18,000 participants from 82 countries and 390 exhibitors, ANGA COM celebrated a brilliant comeback in May 2022. The fantastic atmosphere on-site was impressively confirmed in the anonymous exhibitor survey:

- 100% of the exhibitors from 51 sqm gave a good to excellent rating for the overall evaluation of ANGA COM (93% among all responses)
- 98% of all exhibitors rated the quality of their customer contacts at ANGA COM as good to excellent

More data and numerous customer reviews from the broadband and media industry can be found in the new fact sheet. Furthermore, a wide range of videos and photos is available on the website.

For 2023, new features are already planned. Following the event motto "Where Broadband meets Content", they will address fiber optics as well as media distribution:

- Extension of the conference programme to include an International FTTH Summit with international showcases on fiber roll-out
- Streaming & OTT Hub: new special area for media technology including a piazza with stage in exhibition hall

Dr. Peter Charissé, CEO of ANGA COM: "The results of the exhibitor survey on our restart are absolutely mind-blowing. That is a perfect basis for next year. With end of May, we once again have a date that provides summer conditions and maximum planning security. Our industry faces a bigger potential than ever: In Germany alone we have a private investment volume of up to 50 billion Euros."

ANGA COM is Europe's leading Exhibition and Conference for Broadband, Television & Online. It brings together network operators, vendors and content providers on all issues of the broadband and media distribution. The last ANGA COM counted 390 exhibitors from 33 countries and more than 18,000 participants from 82 countries. Amongst the participants were 520 network and platform operators serving more than 200 million households all over Europe, as well as 250 media companies. 40 percent of the participants belonged to the senior level. The next show date is 23 to 25 May 2023 in Cologne/Germany.
