Cologne/Germany, 17 April 2023 | ANGA COM, Exhibition and Conference for Broadband, Television & Online from 23 to 25 May 2023 in Cologne/Germany, has released the agenda of the new Innovation Stage today; it is available online here. The Innovation Stage is part of the special area media distribution with the Streaming & OTT Hub in exhibition hall 7. All exhibition visitors and ticket categories have free access to the new stage. The programme includes more than 30 additional speaker slots on video, streaming and connectivity in English. There will be up-to-date presentations and discussions on topics such as Security & Encoding, Sustainability, Energy Management, Smart Home, Low Latency, Personalization, Smart TV, Cloud Technologies and DVB-I.

Together with the new International FTTH Summit within the strategy programme, which has already been published, and the technology programme, which will be released shortly, ANGA COM offers more than 90 speaker slots in English for the first time.

Dr. Peter Charissé, CEO ANGA COM: "With the massively expanded programme in English, ANGA COM will be even more attractive for international visitors this year. This applies equally to video topics as well as FTTH and connectivity topics. I am particularly looking forward to the completely new and first-class programme of the Innovation Stage, with which we are expanding the topics of video and media distribution in particular. And this, since it offers free access for all exhibition visitors, with maximum coverage. The line-up of the new International FTTH Summit with leading vendors and network operators on the FTTH roll-out in Europe has also developed excellently."

The strong international relevance of ANGA COM can also be seen in the fact that the number of exhibitors has now grown to more than 470 companies from 35 countries. In 2022, visitors of ANGA COM travelled to Cologne from a total of 82 countries. The exhibitor list and floor plans are already available online.

Registration for conference and exhibition visitors is possible online; there will be no ticket sales on-site. Tickets for the exhibition including access to the Innovation Stage are available for 25.- Euros. Participation in the regular conference programme can be booked from 130.- Euros. On 25 May 2023, the Theme Day Fiber & Municipalities, participation in the exhibition and conference programme is completely free of charge. Those who already have a regular exhibition or conference ticket do not need to register separately for this day.

All information on the event is available online at www.angacom.de. Further details and numerous customer reviews from the broadband and media industry can be found in the fact sheet. The website also provides a wide range of videos and photos.
