Cologne/Germany, 16 April 2024 | ANGA COM, Europe's leading Exhibition and Conference for Broadband, Television & Online from 14 to 16 May 2024 in Cologne/Germany, has released the agenda of the Innovation Stage today; it is available online here. After its successful premiere in 2023, the Innovation Stage will once again be located directly in exhibition hall 7. All exhibition visitors and ticket categories have free access to the programme on this stage which includes more than 30 additional speaker slots on Streaming, OTT and Connectivity.

The Innovation Stage will feature up-to-date presentations and discussion panels on topics such as Artificial Intelligence, Streaming, OTT, Sustainability and Connectivity. This year, the international media experts Dr. Jörn Krieger and Benjamin Schwarz will be compiling and moderating an integrated part of the additional programme, which is freely accessible to all visitors.

With the strategy and technology programme already published in March, ANGA COM thus offers a total of over 60 panels with more than 240 speakers and over 90 speaker slots in English. The strategy programme is available here, the highly international technology programme here.

Dr. Peter Charissé, CEO ANGA COM: “For just 25.- Euros, we offer three days exhibition plus an international stage programme. With 480 exhibitors in the halls, we have just passed the next target mark, and the conference programme is more comprehensive and varied than ever. Everything is in place for three great days in May.”

The strong international orientation of ANGA COM is also reflected in the fact that the number of exhibitors has now grown to more than 480 companies from 35 countries, which will be present on 25,000 square metres gross exhibition space. In 2023, the 22,000 visitors travelled to Cologne from a total of over 80 countries. The exhibitor list is available here on the website, the interactive floor plans here.

Registration for conference and exhibition visitors is possible online; there will be no ticket sales on-site. Tickets for the exhibition are available for 25.- Euros. Participation in the conference programme is possible from 140.- Euros, for young professionals (people under 30 years) for not more than 40.- Euros. On the third day, Thursday, 16 May 2024, participation in the exhibition and conference programme is completely free of charge.

All information on the event is available on the website at www.angacom.de. Further details and numerous statements of leading representatives from the fiber optics, broadband and media industry can be found in the fact sheet. The website also provides a wide range of videos and photos.
