Sometimes pictures say more about an event than numbers. The official ANGA COM video is now available in the video and photo gallery on the website.

Dr. Peter Charissé, CEO ANGA COM: "ANGA COM has once again grown at a high level. We are particularly pleased with the excellent ratings that our exhibitor and visitor surveys have given us, especially in the areas of organization and marketing. Due to the further growth in visitor numbers, at some rush hours we have reached limits in terms of access to the car parks. We will be working particularly hard on this for 2025."
