In 2025, exhibitors and visitors can look forward to two new features: Firstly, we will align the agenda on the Innovation Stage in hall 7 more closely with the regular conference programme. Also, we will continue to expand the topic areas connectivity, mobile, software and AI beside the media distribution segment. In addition, the networking and meeting capacities on the fairgrounds will be significantly increased once again. In particular, a new ANGA COM Business Center with extensive logistics for meetings and concentrated office work will be created directly in hall 7.

Dr. Peter Charissé, CEO ANGA COM: “Next year, we will continue to focus on strong future topics such as fiber optics, connectivity, streaming and OTT. We want to give even more space to software and AI solutions. At the same time, we will also continuously improve our logistics at the fairgrounds. This applies in particular to meeting space and parking.”
