

ANGA COM 2018 boosts visitor numbers by 12 percent to 21,700

- Number of participants reaches 21,700 (plus 12 %)
- More than 500 exhibitors from 37 countries (plus 10 %)
- Successful extension of the conference agenda
- ANGA COM 2019 from 4 to 6 June 2019 in Cologne/Germany

Cologne/Germany, 15 June 2018 | ANGA COM 2018 ended with a record of 21,700 participants and more than 500 exhibitors yesterday. This corresponds to a growth in the number of participants of 12 percent and an increase in the exhibitor participation of 10 percent.

The new concept for the extended conference agenda has worked out. On the third day, the Broadband Day, which was jointly organized by ANGA COM, the Broadband Office of the German Federation and the Association of Telecommunications and Value-Added Service Providers (VATM), the number of participants increased by 24 percent compared to the previous year.

Dr. Peter Charissé, Managing Director of ANGA COM: "After the relocation to new exhibition halls in 2017, we have optimized our concept once again. The conference agenda was completely redesigned and thrilled the audience with a first-class mix of broadband and media representatives and a huge stage projection screen. The first feedback from our customers makes us very happy: This was the most successful and beautiful ANGA COM since its existence. We would like to thank all exhibitors, sponsors, speakers and partners."

ANGA COM 2019 will take place from 4 to 6 June 2019 in Cologne/Germany.

ANGA COM is organized by a subsidiary of the Association of German Cable Operators (ANGA) and has been supported by ZVEI (Satellite & Cable) for many years. Cooperation partners include the Broadband Office of the German Federation, Broadband TV News, BUGLAS e.V., Cable Europe, Deutsche TV-Plattform e.V., eco e.V., ISBE – International Society of Broadband Experts, SCTE – The Society for Broadband Professionals, VATM e.V., VPRT e.V. and ZVEI e.V. Sponsoring partners are ASTRA Deutschland, AVM, Nokia, QVC, Telekom Deutschland and Unitymedia.
